Purely Pomegranate, Inc. ("PPI") and Valley Forge Insurance Company ("Valley Forge") hereby file this Complaint against Fallon Trading Company ("Fallon"), Goknur Gida Maddeleri Ith. Ihr. Tic. Ve San. A.S dba Goknur Foodstuffs Import Export Trading and Production Co. ("Goknur"), United Juice Corp. ("United Juice"), and Does 1-50 (collectively "Defendants") as follows:

Nature of Action

1. This is an action for damages due to claims against PPI arising from allegedly contaminated pomegranate arils supplied by Defendants.

The Parties

2. PPI is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of California with its principle place of business in the State of California. PPI is authorized to do business in the State of California.

9 3. Valley Forge is, and at all times mentioned herein was, a corporation 10 organized and existing under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania with its principle 11 place of business in the State of Illinois. Valley Forge is authorized to do business 12 in the State of California. Valley Forge issued policies of liability insurance under 13 which PPI was insured during the relevant time period.

14 4. Third party Townsend Farms, Inc. is an Oregon corporation that was 15 also insured as an “additional insured” with respect to certain bodily injuries as 16 defined under the Valley Forge policies insuring PPI during the relevant time 17 period.

18 5. PPI and Valley Forge are informed and believe and on that basis allege 19 that Goknur is a business entity organized and existing under the laws of Turkey, 20 with its principle place of business in Turkey, that conducts business in the United 21 States generally and California specifically, including the shipment of the 22 pomegranate arils at issue to locations within the United States, including 23 California.

24 6. PPI and Valley Forge are informed and believe and on that basis allege 25 that United Juice is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State 26 of New Jersey, with its principle place of business in the State of New Jersey, and is 27 authorized to do business in the State of California. United Juice has represented to 28 courts that it is a subsidiary of Goknur. An example of such a representation, a copy

1 of United Juice's corporate disclosure statement filed in Straka v. Townsend Farms, Inc., et al., No. 3:13-cv-01759-HZ (D. Or.), is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

3 7. PPI and Valley Forge are informed and believe that Goknur and United 4 Juice are the alter egos of each other such that observance of the fiction of separate 5 existence would sanction a fraud and promote injustice. For example, PPI and 6 Valley Forge are informed and believe Goknur formed United Juice for the purposes
7 of entering the U.S. market, Goknur secures insurance for United Juice, Goknur 8 controls the assets of United Juice, Goknur uses United Juice as a conduit for 9 importation of products, including the pomegranate arils at issue in this action, into 10 the United States, and that Goknur and United Juice share employees.

11 8. PPI and Valley Forge are informed and believe that, at all relevant 12 times, Goknur and United Juice were the agents of each other with respect to the 13 relevant transactions involving the pomegranate arils at issue as discussed below.

14 9. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and on that basis allege, that Does 15 1-50 are sued herein under fictitious names for the reason that their true names are 16 unknown to Plaintiffs. When such names are ascertained, Plaintiffs will seek leave 17 of this Court to amend this Complaint accordingly.

Jurisdiction

19 10. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in 20 paragraphs 1 through 9.

21 11. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' claims 22 pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332(a) and (c), the parties being citizens of different states 23 and the amount in controversy being in excess of $75,000.00, excluding interest and 24 costs.

25 12. Venue is proper in this Judicial District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

26 13. This Court has jurisdiction and venue over Defendants because, for 27 example, numerous Underlying Claims are venued in this Court, all of which were 28 noticed and tendered to Defendants, and each of them, but all have refused to defend

1 and indemnify PPI. Additionally, at all relevant times Defendants, each of them, 2 have done and do business in the State of California, they shipped certain shipments 3 of the pomegranate arils at issue to California, and they have traveled to California, 4 including for the purposes of meeting with PPI. Goknur has been found to be 5 subject to the jurisdiction of California courts in the matter of Brackenridge v.
 6 Townsend Farms, Inc., et al., No. BC-510633, Superior Court, County of Los 7 Angeles, which allegedly arose from the same facts as are at issue here. A copy of 8 the notice of that court's ruling is attached hereto as Exhibit B. In addition, Goknur 9 has conceded jurisdiction in California by answering a cross-complaint filed by 10 Fallon Trading Company in the Favero v. Townsend Farms, Inc., et al., No. 37-11 2013-00051417-CU-PL-CTL, Superior Court, County of San Diego, which involves 12 pomegranate arils from the same lot as are at issue in this matter. A copy of 13 Goknur's Answer in Favero is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

14 Background

15 14. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in 16 paragraphs 1 through 13.

17 15. Defendants manufactured, exported, distributed, sold or otherwise 18 provided pomegranate arils that were sold by PPI to Townsend Farms, Inc.
 19 ("Townsend Farms") and Scenic Fruit Company ("Scenic"). Defendants sold the 20 pomegranate arils, identified as Lot Code 12-15-13-2-1-0, to PPI between 21 September 24, 2013 and December 17, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as the 22 "Pomegranate Arils"). At all relevant times Goknur has represented that its 23 products, including the Pomegranate Arils, are good for human consumption and are 24 processed and packaged in its plants under strict HACCP guidelines and FDA 25 regulations, laws, and applicable process standards. Defendants, and each of them, 26 represented that the Pomegranate Arils had been produced, manufactured or 27 performed in compliance with the requirements of, and met the standards of, all 28 applicable Federal, State, and local laws, regulations and ordinances.

1 16. PPI reasonably relied on Defendants', and each of their, representations 2 and warranties regarding the Pomegranate Arils in making the decision to purchase 3 the Pomegranate Arils and subsequently in distributing the arils to Townsend Farms 4 and Scenic.

5 17. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that basis allege that 6 Townsend Farms and Scenic utilized portions of the Pomegranate Arils in their 7 respective products. Townsend Farms distributed a product called "Townsend 8 Farms Organic Antioxidant Blend" (the "TFI Product"), a frozen berry and 9 pomegranate aril mix that contained the Pomegranate Arils. Townsend Farms 10 distributed and sold the TFI Product through Costco at retail stores throughout the 11 western United States, including in the State of California. Scenic Fruit Company 12 distributed a product called "Woodstock Organic Pomegranate Kernels" (the 13 "Scenic Product"), a product containing the Pomegranate Arils. Plaintiffs are 14 informed and believe and on that basis allege that the Scenic Product was shipped to 15 distribution centers in California, Colorado, Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, 16 Iowa, New Hampshire, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Texas, and Washington State.
 17 From those locations the Scenic Product may have been further distributed to retail 18 stores in other states.

19 18. Numerous individuals allegedly contracted HAV after exposure to the 20 TFI Product, the Scenic Product or to individuals who had purportedly contracted 21 HAV from exposure to either the TFI Product or the Scenic Product. From an 22 investigation of certain of these individual's circumstances, the U.S. Food and Drug 23 Administration ("FDA") and Centers for Disease Control and Prevention ("CDC") 24 contend that the most likely vehicle of transmission of the Hepatitis A virus in the 25 TFI Product were the Pomegranate Arils supplied by Defendants.

26 19. PPI recalled the Pomegranate Arils and Townsend Farms and Scenic 27 both recalled their products containing the Pomegranate Arils.

28

1 20. On or about July 2013, PPI began receiving claims and lawsuits
 2 alleging injuries and damages related to the contention that the Pomegranate Arils 3 were tainted with HAV. These underlying claims include: (1) numerous lawsuits 4 and claims by individuals who allege damages or injury due to exposure to the TFI 5 Product or Scenic Product and the Pomegranate Arils contained in those products 6 (or exposure to others who allegedly contracted HAV from exposure to the 7 Pomegranate Arils) supplied by Defendants; and (2) claims against PPI by 8 Townsend Farms, Costco and Scenic Fruit, who were allegedly involved in the 9 manufacture, supply, storage, distribution or sale of products that incorporated the 10 Pomegranate Arils supplied by Defendants, collectively the "Underlying Claims".
 11 A listing of all known Underlying Claims that have been asserted in lawsuits is 12 attached as Exhibit D. In addition, with respect to eighty-four (84) of the 13 Underlying Claims, claims have been asserted but no lawsuits have been filed of 14 which PPI is aware, at the time of the filing of this Complaint.

15 21. PPI has denied and continues to deny liability for the Underlying 16 Claims. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that basis allege that Townsend 17 Farms has denied and continues to deny liability for the Underlying Claims. Valley 18 Forge is participating, under reservation of rights, in the defense of PPI and 19 Townsend Farms against certain of the lawsuits identified in Exhibit D.

20 22. Pursuant to California Commercial Code Section 2607 and California 21 Code of Civil Procedure Section 1021.6, (and similar laws of other states), Plaintiffs 22 repeatedly provided Defendants with notices of the Underlying Claims and 23 requested that Defendants defend and indemnify PPI with respect to the Underlying 24 Claims. Defendants refused and continue to refuse to defend and indemnify PPI.
 25 Plaintiffs also requested that Defendants participate in settlement of the Underlying 26 Claims. Defendants refused and continue to refuse to participate in the settlement of 27 the Underlying Claims.

28

1 23. To protect their interests, Plaintiffs have settled, and continue to settle, 2 certain of the Underlying Claims. Beginning in 2014, Valley Forge has paid 3 amounts toward the settlement of certain of the Underlying Claims on behalf of its 4 insureds, PPI and/or Townsend Farms, and as a result is subrogated to the rights of 5 PPI and Townsend Farms, respectively, against Defendants to the extent of said 6 payments. Valley Forge brings this suit against Defendants, and each of them, in its 7 capacity as subrogee.

8 24. In participating in the defense of the Underlying Claims and in making 9 the payments, which were reasonable, Valley Forge did not act as a volunteer.

10 25. Valley Forge has suffered and will continue to suffer damages in a 11 determinable amount in excess of $75,000.00, caused by the act or omission upon 12 which the liability of Defendants depends.

13 26. Justice requires that the loss should be entirely shifted from Valley 14 Forge to the Defendants, whose equitable position is inferior to that of Valley Forge.

15 27. PPI has also suffered damages and will continue to suffer damages 16 related to the Underlying Claims and the alleged contamination of the Pomegranate 17 Arils, including but not limited to cost of recall, lost profits, loss of business, loss of 18 reputation, and legal costs. PPI's damages currently exceed $75,000.00.

First Cause of Action

(Equitable Indemnity)

21 28. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in 22 paragraphs 1 through 27.

23 29. PPI has been subject to the Underlying Claims due to the allegedly 24 defective Pomegranate Arils supplied by Defendants.

25 30. PPI has provided notice to Defendants of the Underlying Claims and 26 the opportunity to defend and indemnify PPI with respect to the Underlying Claims.

27 31. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that basis allege that if 28 allegations of the Underlying Claims are found to be true, and Plaintiffs are held

1 liable for the Underlying Claims, it will be because of and as a proximate result of 2 primary or active negligence or other wrongful conduct of Defendants herein.
3 Therefore, any liability of Plaintiffs will be imputed on the basis of vicarious, 4 constructive, derivative, or secondary liability, and not as a result of any active 5 negligence or other acts on the part of Plaintiffs. If Plaintiffs are found liable for 6 any damages alleged in the Underlying Claims, then said liability will be the result 7 of the acts and omissions, whether negligent or otherwise, of each of the 8 Defendants, and that as a result, Plaintiffs will be entitled to equitable 9 indemnification to the full extent permitted by law.

10 32. Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer losses and other 11 general, consequential, specific, and substantial damages in an amount to be 12 determined according to proof at time of trial.

Second Cause of Action

(Negligence)

15 | 33. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in
16 | paragraphs 1 through 32.

17 34. Defendants, and each of them, had a duty to exercise reasonable care in 18 the manufacture, export, import, distribution, supply or sale of the Pomegranate
19 Arils.

20 35. Defendants also owed a duty to exercise reasonable care to ensure that 21 the Pomegranate Arils were merchantable and free from defects and fit for the use
22 for which they were intended, and to make sure that the Pomegranate Arils met 23 Defendants' own specifications and performance standards, the standards of care in 24 the industry, and all applicable Federal, State, and local laws, regulations and 25 ordinances.

26 36. If the allegations of the Underlying Claims are true, Defendants will 27 have breached all of these duties to Plaintiffs. As a direct and proximate result of 28 such a breach, Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer losses and other

1 general, consequential, specific, and substantial damages in an amount to be 2 determined according to proof at time of trial.

3 Third Cause of Action

4 (By PPI Against Defendants - Negligent Interference 5 With Economic Advantage)

6 37. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in 7 paragraphs 1 through 36.

8 38. At all relevant times Defendants, and each of them, were aware from 9 communications by PPI and other sources of the nature and economic prospects of 10 PPI.

11 39. Prior to the alleged outbreak of HAV from the Pomegranate Arils, PPI 12 had economic relationships with third parties that contained a reasonably probable 13 future economic benefit or advantage to PPI.

14 40. Defendants, and each of them, had a duty to exercise reasonable care in 15 the manufacture, export, import, distribution, supply or sale of the Pomegranate
16 Arils.

17 41. Defendants also owed a duty to exercise reasonable care to ensure that 18 the Pomegranate Arils were merchantable and free from defects and fit for the use
19 for which they were intended, and to make sure that the Pomegranate Arils met 20 Defendants' own specifications and performance standards, the standards of care in 21 the industry, and all applicable Federal, State, and local laws, regulations and 22 ordinances.

23 42. If the allegations of the Underlying Claims are true, Defendants will 24 have breached all of these duties to Plaintiffs. As a direct and proximate result of 25 such a breach, Plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer losses and other 26 general, consequential, specific, and substantial damages in an amount to be 27 determined according to proof at time of trial.

28

Fourth Cause of Action

(Breach of Implied Warranty of Merchantability)

43. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 42.

44. Defendants, and each of them, individually and collectively, made implied warranties of merchantability concerning the Pomegranate Arils, which were relied upon by PPI at the time of purchase and acquisition and continuing up to and including the time of the alleged incidents giving rise to the Underlying Claims. Should the allegations of the Underlying Claims prove true, Defendants will have breached such warranties.

45. As a result of Defendants' breaches, PPI has suffered and will continue to suffer losses and other general, consequential, specific, and substantial damages in an amount to be determined according to proof at time of trial.

Fifth Cause of Action

(Breach of Implied Warranty of Fitness for a Particular Purpose)

46. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 45.

47. At the time of the PPI's purchase of the Pomegranate Arils, Defendants, and each of them, knew or had reason to know of PPI's particular needs and intended use of the Pomegranate Arils; in particular, that PPI intended that product for human consumption and for sale to others to include in products for human consumption.

48. At the time of sale, Defendants, and each of them, knew or had reason to know PPI was relying on their skill and judgment in providing suitable goods, i.e., that were safe for human consumption.

49. PPI justifiably relied on Defendants' skill and judgment to provide the Pomegranate Arils were suitable for its needs.

1 50. In the event the allegations of the Underlying Claims are established, 2 the Pomegranate Arils provided by Defendants will not have been suitable for PPI's 3 particular needs and would have not been safe for human consumption, as 4 warranted.

5 51. Defendants will have breached the implied warranty of fitness for a 6 particular purpose.

7 52. As a result of such breaches, PPI has suffered and will continue to 8 suffer substantial economic losses and other general, consequential, specific, and 9 substantial damages in an amount to be determined according to proof at time of 10 trial.

Sixth Cause of Action

13 53. Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the allegations set forth in 14 paragraphs 1 through 52.

15 54. An actual and substantial controversy has arisen and now exists 16 between Plaintiffs and Defendants, and each of them, concerning their respective 17 rights and duties with respect to liability for the Underlying Claims as alleged 18 herein, and to the extent that any damages, judgments, or other relief is awarded 19 against Plaintiffs, they are entitled to a finding of indemnification from Defendants, 20 and each of them, as well as recovery of its attorneys' and consultant fees and costs, 21 which Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that basis allege that Defendants 22 deny any such indemnification obligation.

23 55. Plaintiffs seek a judicial determination of their rights and duties of the 24 parties, and a declaration that Defendants, and each of them, are obligated to defend, 25 indemnify, and hold Plaintiffs harmless for the damages and losses incurred as a 26 //

27 //

28 //

1 result of the Underlying Claims, as well as reimburse Plaintiffs for all expense they 2 may incur and have incurred in defense of the Underlying Claims.

3 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

4 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for judgment as follows:

5 1. That PPI and Valley Forge be awarded damages sustained as a 6 consequence of Defendants' conduct;

7 2. For pre-judgment and post-judgment interest;

8 3. For the cost of suit incurred herein;

9 4. For attorney fees, including but not limited to fees pursuant to Cal.
10 Code Civ. Proc. Sec. 1021.6;

11 5. For a declaration that Defendants, and each of them, owe Plaintiffs a 12 duty to defend, indemnify and hold them harmless against the Underlying Claims;

13 6. For costs of suit; and 14 7. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

15 DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

16 Plaintiffs hereby demand a trial by jury.
